Clear Vision Productions, LLC

has already brought Connecticut several major (and well attended) Expos; providing a fun & captivating event for attendees as well an excellent marketing vehicle for area businesses.

“Girls Night Out” Women’s Expo as well as “Wedding Styles of Connecticut”, recently held at the Chevrolet Theater in Wallingford; offered wine tastings, live music, giveaways and contests - pleasing both attendees and bringing ample foot traffic to the booths of area businesses looking for a new and creative way to market their business.

“People are looking for a more exciting, hands-on approach to explore area businesses and form relationships with them. In the current economy, Expos are the perfect way to get out in front of consumers, having them sample, try, and become educated about your products and services in an active, stimulating way.” says Charlene Chiaro, CEO of Clear Vision Productions.

Charlene Zampano brings over 2 decades of Marketing experience in both the print industry, bridal industry, expo and event planning. You can reach her and find out more about the next upcoming expo at www.aclearvisionproduction.com.
